The Class of 1950, New Bedford Vocational High School

School Song

Mids't the spires of old New Bedford
Waves the white and green
Stands our glorious school Vocational
Noblest ever seen.

CHORUS:

Let our voices, raised in chorus
Loud her glory sing,
And the praises of Vocational
Through our fair land ring.

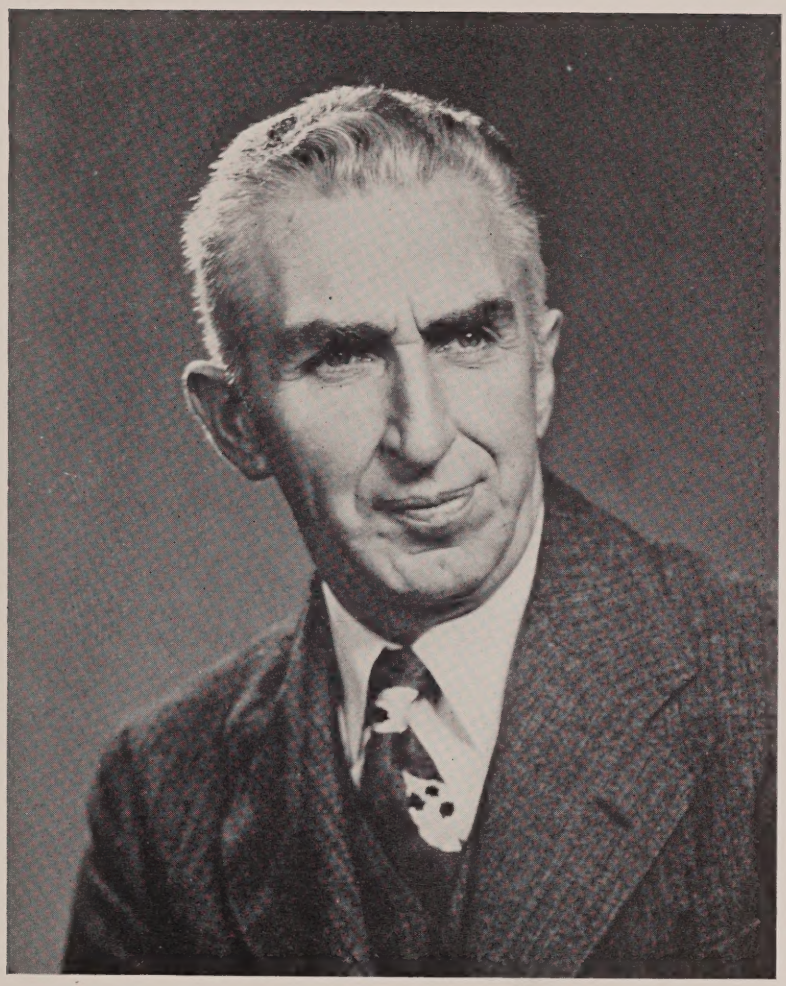
Loyal graduates from her portals
Bring to Industry
All their skill and all their knowledge,
To them - - - - - Honor Be!

Miss Helen B. Knapp

We, the girls of the class of 1950, gratefully dedicate this book to MISS HELEN B. KNAPP in appreciation of her untiring service to us.

Her pleasant manner and conscientious teaching have earned our admiration and respect during our years at Vocational High.

We sincerely wish that the future will bring her success and happiness always!



Mr. William J. Quinlan

We, the boys of the class of 1950, gratefully dedicate this book to MR. WILLIAM J. QUINLAN in appreciation of his loyal service at Vocational High School.

An upright man and a conscientious teacher, Mr. Quinlan has always been held in high regard by his students.

Our best wishes for his future happiness and continued achievements go with this dedication to him!

"A Merry Heart Maketh A Cheerful Countenance"

—OLD TESTAMENT

Charles F. Foley
Good Luck.
With Love -x

Mr. Charles F. Foley

In May, our school had the sad task of saying farewell to MR. CHARLES F. FOLEY, Head of the Steam-Engineering Department.

After thirty-five years of faithful and devoted service, Mr. Foley retired from his teaching duties and our regret at losing him was deep and heartfelt.

We hope the future will bring you many new joys and interests, Mr. Foley, so that the coming years will be filled with happiness and contentment!

We, the Staff of the 1950 Mariner, present this book to you as a record of the happy days spent here at Vocational High.

Memories! Memories! Autumn, – sunburned goldenrod, a hazy, pumpkin-faced moon looking in on our Harvest Dance! Winter, – snow and ice, our Christmas vacation! Spring, – budding leaves, our class outing, fragrant roses! At last, examinations and Graduation, with a bewitching June moon! Memories! Memories!

CLASS PROPHECY – 1950

Good Morning, ladies and gentlemen! This is your swami, John Grinnell of the class of 1950, who will try to peer into the future through my crystal ball. With the magic word of "Lanoivtacov" the crystal clears and I can see ahead to the year 1960.

I see a fast moving super-sonic airliner. Looking around inside I sight some familiar faces—Loretta Janiak the class worrier—still wondering if we'll be on time, Theresa Sullivan — now a well loved social worker, "Power" and "Welding" Cole, coowners of a Supersonic Garage and Eileen Marques, proprietor of the world renowned "Madame Olga's Beauty Shoppe."

Barbara Hathaway and Joanna DeLuz act as our very efficient air-line hostesses. They see to it that we are comfortably seated and happy. Our millionaire pilot, Ray Pepin, and his penniless co-pilot — the Ford man, Bruce Murdock, will see us, we hope, to a safe journey's end.

In a few seconds we land at Washington Municipal Airport, Washington, D. C. Here we pick up Jane Collis — loathe to leave her 1948 Lincoln. Jane does private chauffering for such celebrities as Arnold Madeira, famous filibustering Senator from Massachusetts and "Tubby" Pacheco, of the Crosley Enterprises. Pacheco has just returned from the Capitol where he has unsuccessfully tried to get up a petition for the enlarging of the Crosley.

We see getting aboard such well-known sports figures as Charlie Crowell, Leo Doyon, Wally Mis, and Rudy Bociek, all members of the unbeaten "Schemers, Ping-Pong Championship Team." With them, just in case of a casualty, they have two nurses, Gerry Wolfe and Rhea Giguere.

Whoa! Here comes Julio Fortes, galloping down the runway. He is still suffering a few ill effects from his last boxing bout in which he won the world's paperweight title.

As we reach our destination, Miami, Florida, our pilots are all smiles because they have just completed their record hop. As we leave the plane we find Ernest Faulkner, Frank Gomes, Richard Oliver, and Charles Tillet working as members of the ground crew, working — Oh my gosh! — under the direction of Leonard Ellis.

With a "See you all later", we board the bus for our hotel. As we cruise along Flugler Avenue, a few neon signs catch our eye — "Allain and Dalrymple, Deluxe Wrecking Co." and "The Lazy-Jane Dress Shop" owned and operated by the Mesdames Barbara Cejka and Gabrielle Desorcy. The last sign is over a candy shop which is managed by Betty Ann Green and Mary Manley, two of the sweetest girls in the world, in our humble opinion.

Finally we arrive at the Hotel Sheraton where we are greeted by the manager who is none other than our old classmate, Bob Bedard. Bedard has made all arrangements for us — we hope!

As we enter the hotel ballroom later on, we see Conrad Linkiewicz and his "Elastic Band" playing "Music With A Snap". The vocalist is Lorraine Mello doing, as well as ever, her old stand-by, "My Hero." Next on the program is "Tillie" Santos, now a famous dancer. After listening to selections from our, (ahem!) orchestra, we hear a few imitations by Mae Ann Hughes, now Mrs. Amos Souza.

Among the dancers on the floor we spot Mr. and Mrs. Gene McCoy, Mrs. McCoy is the former Alice Pittsley, and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Lach, Mrs. Lach is the former "Terry" Boswell. In a corner we see resting, per usual, a group of distinguished looking gentlemen among whom are Joe Perry, inventor of the Board Stretcher, Bill Stawasz and Bill Balthazar who are still trying to discover how long a short circuit is. With them is Harry Faulkner, ace detective of the Crime Wave Detective Agency.

Next we move into the dining-room where we find seated at a table, after three— or was it four servings? — the following classmates — foot testers for General Mills, Les Hacking and Les Manchester. Incidentally, May Eger, Elaine Doucet and Justina Monteiro have taken over the management of the Foods Department at General Mills. The boys have been enjoying the $.95 blue plate special, prepared by Eddie Nowicki and his able assistant, Ronald Piva.

The following morning we find ourselves walking along the shore of the beautiful beach at Miami. On one of the tennis courts we find Eileen Caton and Arlene Cardoza, playing a set with their husbands. Cheering them on the sidelines are the confirmed bachelors, Dick Baker and Eddie Soares. Official scorer and ball chaser is Alex Knox, a professional football player with the South End Ramblers. They have just had a tremendous season — nine losses to one win!

As we continue along, we see on the two-foot diving board, Marion Kenyon and Peggy McKenna, coaxing their children to dive. Their husbands were unable to accompany them because of trouble in the stock market. Above, on the eight foot diving board are Emerson Keyes and George Johnson, movie stunt men, doing their own special swan dive. Esther Williams and her director are watching them in order to learn what not to do!

On the horizon appears a luxurious yacht bearing the name S. B. V. D. or unabbreviated, "Sponsored by Vocational Dues". As the yacht draws closer to the pier, we see that at the wheel are Admiral Raymond Wilbur and Commander Louis L. Dumont who were, if we remember correctly, our President and Treasurer. 'Nuff sed!

In the rear of the yacht doing some deep sea fishing are Ernie Seney, D. Stevens and Norman Mathieu, Retired. Bob Aitken, reel expert, also Retired, is supervising. Doing a good job of shining up the brass are the cheerful deckhands Arthur Conward, Donald Sylvia and Tom Fraher.

Among the first passengers coming down the gang-plank, we see Laurie Mendes, an officer in the W. A. C. S. talking with Barbara Lawton and her husband. Behind them we see Harold Comstock, now a worn-out, old married man and George Swansey, still a famous hunter, looking over a group of girls before him. In the group we recognize Eleanor Botelho, chief operator at the N. B. Telephone exchange, Terry Hodziewich the famous concert pianist, Clara Weigel, a television comedienne, Loretta Szczepan, an exclusive dress designer and Marie Craig, a famous artist, all chatting excitedly together.

We spot a set of broad blue shoulders and see that Joseph B. Goulart III made his Machinist Mate First Class rating in the Navy.

Gathering at the pier to welcome all the newcomers, we find Mary Cruz, city librarian, Frank Winters, expert mechanic for jet planes, Evelyn Spooner, now a nurse, George Fagundes, dancing teacher in Fred Astaire's school, Joan Norris, now married to a '49 graduate, Henry Ferreira looking sad because the Yankees won the pennant this year, and Robert Jefferson, a professional basketball player. O! Wait! here are Grace Jefferson, Robert's sister and coach, Bernard Sasseville, Head of the Welding Department at Vocational, and Bill Botelho, second baseman for the Boston Red Sox.

We all return to the hotel and find the ballroom set up for our class reunion. We wait patiently for one of our class mates who is attending a U. N. meeting and will arrive a few minutes late. He is Milton Elliot, Ambassador to England. Mary Wilbur, a Shakespearean actress in her spare time away from her ranch, and Paul Guilbeault, owner of the famous "Eat and Die House" arrive. With them are the well known stars of stage and screen, Eunice Racine, Don Cardinal, and John Charles Lynch. The boys have been doing a sequel to "Lum and Abner". It is called "Murgatroid and Birdie". "Jocko" O'Connor, incidentally is their writer and Milton Berle is sueing them for stealing his stuff.

Our speakers of the day, noted lecturers, begin their talks. John Cadema talks on "Women Drivers", Anita Cardoza on "The Good Old Days at Vocational High," Al Donaghy on the "Why and Wherefore of Code Rules", and Connie Chace on "How to Spend Your Husband's money."

We see Millicent Gibbs, our beautiful but still bashful Cover Girl, sneak into an empty seat in the back row. Almost at the end of the program, Charles — "The Whiz" — Marinelli comes in followed by his private secretaries, Ray Davoll, Cliff Sherman, and Ray Lake. Charlie is still dictating rapidly the latest information on factory parts. All totaled we are one hundred and five present. Everyone made it!

Re-unions always seem so short! Almost before we know it, the time to return to our daily chores is here. We are not expendible and are exhausted from sight-seeing and reminiscing. So with three cheers for good old Vocational High and a final singing of "Auld Lang Syne," we leave by sea, highways and airlines for our different destinations.

Goodbye, Class of 1950! It was nice knowing you!

Class Will

We, the members of the Senior Class of 1950 of New Bedford Vocational High School, City of New Bedford, Bristol County, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being of sound mind and memory (there may be a question about this) do declare this to be our last will and testament.

We hereby bequeath the following:

To Mr. Mackintosh, we wish to express our deepest appreciation for his kindness and the ever pleasant manner with which he befriended us during our four years at Vocational High School.

To Miss Early, we extend our sincere thanks for the understanding and interest shown by her to each of us.

To the Faculty, we leave our unending gratitude for their efforts in making our future paths smooth and purposeful.

To our advisors, Mrs. Oldfield, Miss Forrest, Miss Sloane, Mr. Wilson, Mr. Fuller and Mr. Foley, we leave our sincerest thanks and appreciation for the help and guidance that they so unselfishly gave us.

Raymond Davoll takes his truck and leaves the Carpentry boys sitting on the sidewalk.

Laurie Mendes leaves to spend the rest of her life listening to the recordings of "The Great Mr. B."

Ted Lach leaves Bob Lacroix still bewildered by his tales.

Barbara Cejka leaves wishing she could take Charlie with her.

Joan Norris leaves to go on to Matrimonial University.

Robert Aitken leaves the Freshmen five years of suffering.

Richard Baker leaves hoping they will change some of the Motor Vehicle Laws.

Jane Collis leaves minus her appendix.

Leo Doyon leaves his helmet to Bobby Bland.

Tom Fraher leaves to the Welding Juniors one bar of soap and one towel to fight over.

Alice Pittsley leaves with the next-to-the-last of the McCoys.

Gaby Desorcy leaves Mrs. Cameron minus a "whizzbang" in sewing.

Dave Dalrymple leaves nothing — he can't spare it.

Julio Fortes, Jr. leaves to Anthony Jadlow the privilege of cutting his fingers on the band saw.

Betty-Ann Green leaves the Machine Shop freshmen with no one to whistle at. Cheer up, boys!

Joe Perry and Ronny Piva leave the Carpentry Department minus two good Portuguese carpenters.

"Power" Cole leaves Mr. Robinson minus a spare man.

Eddie Soares and Ernie Seney leave the ten o'clock lunch period in the locker room to anyone who is lucky enough to get away with it.

Mary Manley leaves Andy without candy.

Andy Allain leaves with 5,601 high school hours behind him.

Grace Jefferson, Mary Wilbur and Geraldine Wolf leave gladly on the 3:30 bus back to the country.

Lester Manchester leaves to be with Joan. (Happy Days!)

Barbara Lawton leaves Mrs. Oldfield with nobody to scold for getting into mischief.

"Pete" Dumont leaves with half of the Class treasury in his pocket.

Mae Eger leaves with her short, short memory.

Conrad Linkiewicz leaves because someone told him it was time to go.

Anita Cardoza leaves by jet propulsion — So long Anita!

Raymond Lake leaves to become another Great Lake.

Mae Hughes leaves her seat in the Lakeville bus to some other traveling country gal.

Harry Faulkner leaves his chair in class because he can't haul it away with him.

"Welding" Cole leaves McCombe behind for another year of hard labor.

John Grinnell leaves ending his last will and testament "Heaven help the Welding shop."

Arthur Conward leaves his place in line to "Buzz Hodgins."

Evelyn "Dimples" Spooner leaves quietly.

Ray Pepin leaves for the Merit Gas Station.

Emerson Keyes leaves hoping never again to be haunted by Henry Ferreira.

Marion Kenyon leaves with her beautiful smile.

Bruce Murdock leaves with no regret for rides he had in Ames' Plymouth.

Ray Wilbur leaves with all he can.

"Tillie" Santos leaves the recreation room with many fond regrets.

Rudy Bociek leaves, a nervous wreck.

Leonard Ellis leaves nothing — he takes it all with him.

Elaine Doucet leaves the forbidden high stool in Mrs. Oldfield's kitchen to some unsuspecting Junior.

Arnold Madeira leaves with a contented mind.

Bob Bedard leaves his "Electron Fever" to some enterprising undergraduate.

Charles Marinelli leaves with his guns blazing.

Crowell, Mis, Cardinal, Lynch and O'Connor leave school with $20 of pennies that the undergraduates so willingly gave to the S. E. B. A., namely; Senior Electrical Banker Association.

Finally, the Senior Class leave their best wishes to the entire faculty and student body.

In witness thereof, we set our hand, seal and signature on this twentieth day of June in the year of our Lord Nineteen Hundred and Fifty.

Signed, sealed and declared by the class of 1950 of the New Bedford Vocational High School to be their last Will and Testament.
